4 STEPS

TO BEGIN YOUR COSMETOLOGY EDUCATION

4 TOUR THE SCHOOL VIRTUALLY OR IN PERSON!

One of the most important steps in your research is your campus visit. This will allow you to learn more about our culture and curriculum. You will also get to meet your future Learning Leaders and current Future Professionals.

No time to visit in person? Then request a Virtual Tour Experience with us. Our enrollment team will be happy to send a Virtual Tour Link and spend time with you answering all questions just as if you were on campus.

3 CHOOSE YOUR START DATE

Excited about starting your education with us? Carefully consider what start date is right for you and your situation. Planning a vacation? Best to start after you return. Need to work during the day? Night school classes are the perfect solution! Being on time and maintaining our required 90% attendance is vital to your success and education.

2 FIGURE OUT THE FINANCIALS & SCHEDULE YOUR SIGNING

There are a number of different types of financial assistance you can use here at The Temple. They include (but are not limited to): Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, VA benefits and scholarships. During your tour we will review all of the financial options with you.

CONSUMER INFORMATION DISCLOSURES

Tuition and Financial Aid Information

THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School currently offers a Cosmetology Program for the State of Maryland. The costs of the program break down as such (effective January 1, 2023):

Application Fee (due with Application):	$100.00
Books, supplies, and materials (student kit):	$3,500.00
Sales Tax on student kit (6%):	$210.00
Tuition:	$20,940.00
TOTAL COSTS:	$24,750.00

All fees paid by a Future Professional shall be refundable if the student chooses not to enroll in, or withdraw from, THE TEMPLE within seven (7) calendar days after having signed a contract. If the Future Professional chooses not to enroll after the seven day cancellation period, but before the first day of instruction, THE TEMPLE may retain the Application Fee.

We have several methods by which a Future Professional can pay for their education:

1. Self Financing: By far the least expensive way to pay for your tuition is to either pay in full up front, or break your tuition into equal monthly payments over the course of your education. By paying in this manner, you avoid any type of interest payments. In addition, you will receive a 1098T form at the end of the calendar year showing all school related expenses you have paid. Many times, this form can be used to reduce your taxable income and save you money on your taxes. As always, please check with your accountant for more information on 1098T deductions.
 2. Title IV Funds: THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School participates in the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan program and offers PELL Grants, FSEOG, Stafford Loans, and PLUS Loans to those who qualify. We will need a completed FAFSA from studentaid.gov to use this option. THE TEMPLE's campus code is: 041518
 3. VA Benefits to those who qualify and many more options to explore.

There are three things to remember with any of the financing options:

1. No matter which financial option is chosen, the application fee must be paid by the first day of class.
 2. No matter which financial option is chosen, all monies owed to THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School must be kept current as defined by your contract. A satisfactory arrangement for all monies owed to THE TEMPLE must be made before a graduation certificate can be issued.
 3. Title IV funding is entirely determined by your need and qualifications. THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School does not make the decision on whether you "qualify" for Title IV funds. Not everyone will qualify for all funding.

FAFSA CHECKLIST

You will need records of income earned in the two years prior to when you will start school. You may also need records of your parents' income information if you are a dependent student.

For the current school year you will need financial information from your 2 years prior tax year. You may need to refer to:

- Your Social Security card. It is important that you enter your Social Security Number correctly!
 - Your driver's license (if any) or other government-issued photo ID
 - Your W-2 forms and other records of money earned - two years prior
 - Your (and your spouse's, if you are married) Federal Income Tax Return - two years prior
 - + IRS 1040, 1040A, 1040 EZ
 - + Foreign Tax Return, or
 - + Tax Return for Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Marshall Islands, the Federal States of Micronesia, or Palau
 - Your Parents' Federal Income Tax Return (if you are a dependent student) - two years prior
 - Your untaxed income records
 - Your current bank statements
 - Your current business and investment mortgage information, business and farm records, stock, bond and other investment records
 - Your alien registration or permanent resident card (if you are not a U.S. citizen)
1. Go to studentaid.gov and create a FSA ID username and password. If you are a dependent student, your parent/legal guardian will also need one.
 2. Start entering the data in the FAFSA. Remember that THE TEMPLE's campus code is 041518. To avoid any verification challenges and speed the process, use the IRS data retrieval tool, that allows the FAFSA to pull data directly from the IRS web site.
 3. Ensure you complete the ENTIRE process, including digitally signing the FAFSA. You will know when you are done when you get the screen with your Data Release Number (DRN), Student Aid Index (SAI), and your Confirmation number.
 4. You will get a confirmation email within 48 hours with your Student Activity Report (SAR). Please communicate with our financial aid team via email or phone with the following information: your DRN, your SAI, and your Confirmation Number. THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School will receive a version of your SAR (called an ISIR) within three to five business days of your completion of the FAFSA. At this point, THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School will contact you to confirm receipt along with letting you know the next steps and if we need any further data. Please do not mail your records in.

GAP FINANCING OPTIONS

Gap Financing

“Gap” financing is the term that is applied to any funding necessary to cover the difference between what is available from government backed, Title IV programs and the remaining costs that would be incurred once enrolled at THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School.

The amounts can range from less than $1000 to the entire costs of our program, depending on the results of your FAFSA.

Fortunately, here at THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School, we have several ways to cover that “gap”.

Cash

While this may not seem like an obvious choice, and in many cases, may not be an option at all, paying the remaining difference with cash can be the least expensive method available.

Paying the remaining balance up front has many benefits:

- Depending on how you file your tax returns, the person who pays this remaining balance may qualify for a write down on their taxes. THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School distributes 1098T forms at the end of each year to those who have been charged tuition for the previous year.
- By lowering your total loans, you lower your long-term interest payments.

PLUS Loans

You may sometimes see these loans referred to as Parent PLUS Loans. The reason is that while these are part of the government student loan program, these loans are taken out entirely by the parents. In addition, these loans are credit based, meaning we will need to do a simple credit check to see if the parent even qualifies.

Benefits to the PLUS Loan:

- The interest rate on the PLUS loan is fixed at 8.05% and amortized out over ten years.
- The credit score necessary is significantly lower than any other type of loan on the market.
- Starting in July 2009, PLUS loan payments can be pushed out like Stafford Loans. Meaning that payment can be scheduled to begin six months after you leave our program.
- If the parent’s credit is denied during the initial credit check, the student AUTOMATICALLY is treated like an “independent” student for the purposes of Title IV loans and can receive an additional UNSUBSIDIZED loan up to $4000 per academic year.

Downsides to the PLUS Loan:

- The loan is in the name of the parent ONLY. Students do not go on the loan.

NOTE: Please know that it is very important that you allow THE TEMPLE’s financial aid team to do a PLUS loan credit check, whether you intend to use the PLUS loan program or not. Many parents say they do not want to go on a loan for school, and we completely understand that. However, if as a parent, you are DENIED the opportunity to participate in the PLUS loan program because of adverse credit, then your child will automatically be eligible for up to $6,600 in Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. This can be more than enough to cover the remaining “gap” needs at THE TEMPLE.

Private Loan Options

Over the last few years, many lenders have gotten into what is called the “private student loan” business. We wanted to take a minute to review what these options may entail:

What Private Student Loans ARE:

- Private Student Loans are credit-based loans offered privately by banks or lending companies with terms and conditions that vary from lender to lender.
- Private Student Loans are similar to loans you might receive when you purchase a vehicle or appliance.
- A Private Student Loan is a contractual agreement between a student and a lending company.

What Private Student Loans are NOT:

- Private Student Loans are NOT funded or guaranteed by the federal government.
*NOTE: As of the end of 2004, Sallie Mae, also known as SLM Corporation, no longer has ties to the federal government.
- Private Student Loans are NOT to be confused with what is commonly referred to as Federal Financial Aid or Title IV Funding.
- A Private Student Loan is usually NOT a contractual agreement between a student and the school.

The biggest thing to remember with Private Students loans is that they are no different than any other loan you would get from a bank or credit card company. They will require much higher credit scores, which usually requires some type of co-borrower on the loan. Their interest rates are substantially higher than Title IV loans. And finally, private loans are generally not tax deductible like Title IV loans can be.

THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School has no direct relationship with any private student loan company. All applicants are welcome to pursue this option on their own and THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School financial aid team will work closely with you and the lender to provide whatever data they require during your application process.

Private Scholarships and Grants

THE TEMPLE will assist any qualified applicant in the process of applying for various private scholarships and grants while in our program.

We also encourage all our applicants to look into various scholarships and programs offered by the community. Over the years, we have seen funds come from 4H, community groups, various charity organizations along with many national programs. Be advised that many of these programs require that the applicant already be enrolled in the program and performing at better than average academic performance. Also note that any awards that happen while enrolled in school MAY impact your federal aid because all Title IV awards are to be considered AFTER grants and scholarships are awarded.
